A proxy or proxies representing a member who is an individual or a member who is a corporation shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the member which the member he or they represent as such member could exercise. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in the notes of the notice of EGM and the notes to this proxy form.
2. Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the meeting and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting in person, your proxy appointment shall be deemed to be revoked.
3. A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. Details of how to appoint the Chairman of the EGM or another person as your proxy using the proxy form are set out in the notes to this proxy form. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the meeting and are aware of your voting intentions. If you wish your proxy to make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint someone other than the Chairman and give them the relevant instructions directly.
4. If you hold two or more shares in the Company, you may appoint more than one proxy to represent you and vote on your behalf at the EGM. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one share. To appoint more than one proxy, please contact the Company's registrars at the address set out in note 6.
